700 feted at bankers' ball

KUALA LUMPUR: The National Union of Bank Employees (NUBE), which represents workers in the banking and financial institutions in Malaysia, held its annual dinner and dance recently.

The party was held at the Regency Hotel here, where 700 members of NUBE and 50 guests joined in to celebrate.

The party was also held in conjunction with the Chinese New Year celebration where yee sang and other Chinese dishes were served. — By Natasha Ilyas
